

Name: _____

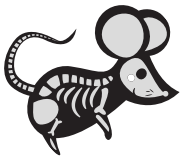

Date: _____

SPOOKY SENTENCES

Many mysterious and creepy animals are associated with Halloween. Read about them in the sentences below, then trace accordingly.

The owl hooted in the tree.

The rat scampered into a hole.

The black cat crossed my path.

The spider spun its silver web.

The bat flapped its wings.

VOCABULARY:

- hooted (past tense of hoot): a deep, musical sound; the call of an owl.
- scampered (past tense of scamper): to run with light, quick steps
- crossed (past tense of cross): to pass in an opposite direction
- spun (past tense of spin): a fast turning or whirling motion.
- flapped (past tense of flap): to wave something, especially wings when or as if flying.

